

smart people:
think minerva

Damie Yeates, Chief Executive learndirect scotland and Tricia Hunter, Director of Minerva People Limited receives trophy

*Tricia said "the team at Minerva was thrilled to be nominated for this award but to have actually won it truly
demonstrates the hard work and commitment
of all at wishing to train and develop people to cope with the many changes we face in the workplace as well as in our personal lives
today."*

www.minervapeople.co.uk

Queensberry House
147 High Street
Dumfries DG1 2QT
Tel/Fax: 01387 248 244
e: info@minervapeople.co.uk

LEARNDIRECT SCOTLAND AWARD Minerva People Limited

Minerva People Limited, a branded learning centre was recognised for its commitment to the Scottish Government's Skills Strategy – Skills for Scotland: A Lifelong Skills Strategy, at learndirect scotland's annual conference in Glasgow.

Minerva People was acknowledged for its achievement in supporting 'Economic Pull.' In this category, the judges were looking for learning centres which have stimulated increased demand for skills from employers, in both the private and public sectors, and encouraged improved utilization of skills amongst the workforce.

Damien Yeates Chief Executive Learndirect Scotland said: "By working closely with SMEs, Minerva has ensured that learners receive the best possible skills development, aligning them with the needs of the local labour market.

It gives me great pleasure to present this award to them and they are more than worthy winners."

Guest speaker at the conference, Minister for Schools and Skills, Maureen Watt said: "With the help and support of learndirect scotland's learning centres everyone has access to learning, training and development opportunities. Learndirect Scotland's work has been crucial in providing valuable information, advice and guidance that makes it easier for individuals to learn and develop their skills and experience. Their continued commitment to widening access to learning means Scotland can look forward to a bright future."

MINERVA
training
recruitment
personnel
business services